Looking Ahead

New Bible Study Beginning Soon!

Beginning October 13th, Pastor White will be leading a Bible Study, and the time has been changed. We will now meet on Wednesdays at 1:30 PM in the Parlor to study the book “Reading the Old Testament Through Jewish Eyes”. The study will take place from 1:30 – 2:30 pm.

CHRISTMAS COMMONS 2021

Yes, there will be a Christmas Commons this year on Saturday, November 20th! Although smaller in scope than previous year's, we will offer decorated wreaths on our front lawn with crafts and baked goods inside a "safety conscious" Baldwin Hall. One week prior to the event on Saturday, November 13th, we plan a day of wreath decorating for all interested, followed by a potluck supper. We invite all crafters to contribute their items for the event and they are welcome to use the supplies that are in the cubbies on the left side of the craft room in the basement or anything else in the room. Bakers get ready and we will need volunteers for that day. Please contact Carol Wroblewski at 508-398-2481 or crosew52@yahoo.com if you are interested in participating in this "Comeback" Christmas Commons! Plan to attend a meeting on Thursday, September 30th at 6PM in the Parlor.
