HYMN OF PRAISE # 38 “O Worship the King”(vs 1,2,5)

INVOCATION (all):

Eternal God, who is more willing to hear than we are to speak, to forgive than we are to seek forgiveness, and to pour out your blessings than we are to desire them, come to us. Forgive us for our sins, especially the times we have hurt others. Forgive us for callous hearts, closed minds, and indifferent spirits and other sins that arise through lack of faith in you. Grant that we like the prophets of old, might experience your grandeur and know your loving touch so that with them we might sing, “holy, holy, holy.” Consecrate us now for this time we have together and breathe into us again the breath of life. These things we as in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
