INVOCATION (all)

Loving God, from you comes every impulse that is beautiful and true. Help us in this hour of worship to take grateful inventory of what sustains us: faith, friendship, shared goals, and service that laces life with meaning. We thank you for everything that elevates our spirits above the confusions of our time and gives us hope. Remind us that to every gift there is attached a responsibility, and to every privilege an obligation. Help us that we may be bearers of creativity rather than chaos, harmony rather than discord, and appreciation rather than cynicism. May our lives be in concert with yours, for it is in you that we trust and it is through your grace that we are made whole. In Jesus’ name. Amen.
